

Maintaining the integrity of the Line of Sponsorship is important in promoting the longevity and profitability of an Planet Program business. Planet Program places strict rules limiting those circumstance under which changes to a line of sponsorship will be condoned.

1.1 Protection of the Line of Sponsorship: An independent business owner (hereinafter “IBO”) shall in no circumstances directly or indirectly and whether on his/her own behalf or in conjunction with or by way of assisting any other person, solicit, interfere with or endeavour to entice another IBO, Member or Client away from his/her Line of Sponsorship or to change Line of Sponsorship.

1.2 Integrity of the Line of Sponsorship: The sale of an ownership interest in an independent business (hereinafter “IB”), or transferring an IB, requires prior approval by Planet Program. This approval shall be at Planet Program’s sole discretion.

1.2.1 The transfer of an IBO, with or without his/her personally sponsored and downline of those sponsored, moves the sponsorship of that IB from one IBO to another.

1.2.2 When an IB is sold, such IB shall remain in the same position in the Line of Sponsorship.

1.2.3 Transfers may not be used to strategically or artificially restructure any part of the Line of Sponsorship.

1.2.4 Transfers will only be granted by Planet Program if, in Planet Program’s opinion, the request for transfer represents an extraordinary circumstance or has been caused by or contributed to by any failure of a Sponsor or of any IBO upline from such Sponsor to meet all or any of the responsibilities of a Sponsor set out in these Rules, or to comply with any other of these Rules, or any injustice would otherwise be imposed upon the IBO requesting the transfer by refusal of the transfer request.

The date on which Planet Program receives the letter of resignation begins the Inactivity period. A person who has not renewed their IB will be considered expired and must remain Inactive for six months from the beginning of the following month.

1.3.1 To apply as a new IBO under this Rule, the applicant must complete a new IBO Contract. If evidence of activity during the three-month period is substantiated, Planet Program will refuse to honour the sponsorship under the new Sponsor. The right of an IBO to contest the sponsorship of a former IBO who is now sponsored under a different Sponsor ceases when six month have elapsed since the date Planet Program accepted the application under the new Sponsor.
